Via Cordata for a day

A new experience, unique in Tarentaise

Presentation

You already know the via ferrata like the back of your hand, with all their little surprises, and you'd like to try something new: the via cordata experience is for you. In Sainte Foy Tarentaise, the guides have decided to offer you something different: you will discover climbing naturally, without handholds or rungs to pull you up and in particular without being attached to a cable. You will learn how to climb and how to make progress roped up with your fellow climbers as a roped party...like in the high mountains but without the difficulty!!! And if a part of the progression is too difficult, some artificial handholds are there to help you. Optional sections will provide surprises to the bravest amongst you. Finally, everybody can enjoy a wonderful atmosphere above the authentic little Crot valley and you may be lucky enough to encounter some curious chamois. A whole universe of sensations to be discovered with Tarentaise Tours.
